

PALETTE-SWAP

PRINCESS LEIA'S STOLEN DEATH STAR PLANS

NINJA

The album opens with the Tantive IV attempting to escape with Princess Leia's Stolen Death Star Plans. Darth Vader soon arrives and informs the rebels that they're going to suffer a terrible fate With Illicit Help from Your Friends.

Meanwhile, on Tatooine, Luke is in the Desert feeling trapped, cleaning droids, and generally crying over blue milk. After R2-D2 runs away, he feels his situation will be Never Better, until meeting up with Ben Kenobi, who gives him a fun new toy. After a faraway meeting of military leaders about the Empire's literal and security Imperial Holes turns awkward on the Death Star, Luke discovers the Jawa massacre and soon finds He's Leaving Home. The only way off planet is through a wretched hive of scum and villainy, as Ben narrates Being from the Spaceport of Mos Eisley.

Once aboard the Millennium Falcon, Ben tries to instruct Luke further about The Force Within You, but their studies are interrupted by a Death Star tractor beam. Once inside, our heroes attempt to rescue Princess Leia from detention level AA Twenty-Three and soon make the slimy acquaintance of the trash-dwelling Dianoga. After a narrow escape – and Ben's unfortunate demise – Luke, Leia, Han and Chewie realize they must Keep Moving if they're going to make it to the base on Yavin IV. Once there, the rebels analyze Princess Leia's Stolen Death Star Plans (Reprise) and mount their final attack on the Death Star. The entire project culminates with A Day in the Life of Red Five, which conveniently ends in a giant explosion.